

DINNER DANCE – CROWN PLAZA, MARLOW, 7 MARCH, 2015

Jeremy Schomberg organising officer for the dinner/dance advises

“We are still under our breakeven point of 100”

IT WOULD BE MAGIC TO GET TO 120 TO FILL THE ROOM – WILL YOU HELP?

ANNUAL RALLY

It was intention to return to Henley this year but we have just been advised that the Henley Royal Regatta have rejected our application out of hand!

Not really very friendly by the rowing fraternity!

We are looking at alternatives and Kingston with the front runner. We will see how we can put an attractive programme together for you.

MAGNA CARTA

This year marks the 800th anniversary of the signing of Magna Carta. There are various celebrations and flotillas on the river.

ATYC will not be participating as such but if you are interested, go to thamesalive.org.uk for information.

Normal river traffic will be disrupted from time to time.

Watch out for notices.

WE WILL CONINTUE A WATCHING BRIEF

CUSTOMER CHARTER 2015

Work is progressing on your behalf to secure the best possible lock and navigation service levels. Budgets are very tight but we are looking at ways to optimise service levels at peak times.

Watch this space – as soon as we have the answers we will advise you all

BOAT REGISTRATION

Enforcement teams are checking and by 1st Feb nearly 100 boats were reported.

Recently a boater was fined £3,000 for failing to have a registration.

If you have not done it yet save a hassle and agrevation get yours !

ATYC ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Taking place at TMYC at Hampton Court.
(Post Code KT8 9BW)

The bar will be open from 1900 and the meeting will open at 2000.

You can find the agenda on the ATYC website atyc.org.uk

ATYC requires the support of all member clubs and we invite you all to participate.

ILLEGAL MOORERS

EA, Police and local authorities are on the case. 41 enforcement notices were issued recently in Kingston and Richmond.

EA have appointed a civil enforcement company to police their transit moorings starting Easter this year

RIVER THAMES ALLIANCE

Have circulated a consultation paper asking members to answer questions to aid RTA to deliver a sustainable river plan for the next six years – Officers will be working to provide answers.

Mike Gates of MDL: Mike Gates will be retiring from MDL in March. He, and through him MDL, have been tremendous supporter of ATYC in many ways. We would like to thank him for this and to wish him a long and happy retirement and we look forward to seeing him on his boat on the river

PLEASE DISTRIBUTE WIDELY TO YOUR MEMBERS AS WELL ON YOUR NOTICE BOARD
